What kind of hunts are there and what are the age ranges?

Straw Hunt:

The straw hunt is located in the barn and is designed for children 3 and under, where little ones can search for eggs hidden in the straw.

Open Hunt:

This hunt is designed for children of all ages. For this hunt, eggs are scattered all over the event area and participants can search at their own pace. The eggs are also replenished all day, so no need to rush if you don't want to.

Competitive Hunts:

This is for those who enjoy the “hunt”! These hunts are hosted in a designated area of the cornfield towards the back of the farm (there is lots of signage) and participants race to see who can get the most! This hunt has two age divisions: 5-8 and 8-13. During this hunt, children will line up and once the signal to go has been given they will be able to run and hunt for as many eggs as they can. The child who collects the most eggs will win a special prize.

What time is the egg hunt?

Straw Hunt:

Eggs are replenished all day long, so hunt at your own pace.

Open Hunt:

Eggs are replenished all day long, so hunt at your own pace.

Competitive Hunt:

Every 45 minutes.

What is included in an adult ticket?

The adult ticket, which is priced lower than a child’s ticket, includes all activities such as face painting, slides, bunny bouncers and more. The best part is you can take as many pictures as you would like with the Easter bunny at no additional cost! We have lots of activities such as life-sized Jenga, life-sized connect four, corn hole and more that is designed to be a parent/child activity. Admission also gives you access to our sponsor booths!

Do I need to bring my own Easter Basket?

We do suggest bringing your own Easter Basket or bag. We will have a limited amount of baskets available to use, these are given out on a first come first serve basis. We will also have baskets available for purchase before the event and on site.
